(a) Each employee earns at least one hour of paid sick leave for every thirty hours worked by the employee; except that an employee is not entitled under this section to earn or use more than forty-eight hours of paid sick leave each year, unless the employer selects a higher limit. An employer may satisfy the accrual requirements of this section by providing the employee with an amount of paid sick leave that meets or exceeds the requirements of this section at the beginning of the year. Nothing in this section discourages or prohibits an employer from providing paid sick leave that accrues at a faster or more generous rate than required by this section. (b) allows its employees to use the paid leave for the same purposes and under the same conditions as those applicable to paid sick leave under this part 4.

(5)

(a) Except as specified in subsection (5)(b) of this section, and notwithstanding section 8-4-101(14)(a)(iv), nothing in this section requires an employer to provide financial or other reimbursement of unused paid sick leave to an employee upon termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment; except that an individual may recover paid sick leave as a remedy for a retaliatory personnel action that prevented the individual from using paid sick leave.

(b) If an employee separates from employment and is rehired by the same employer within six months after the separation, the employer shall reinstate any paid sick leave that the employee had accrued but not used during the employee's previous employment with the employer and that had not been converted to monetary compensation to the employee at the time of separation from employment.

(6) An employer may loan paid sick leave to an employee in advance of accrual of paid sick leave by the employee.

(III) needs to obtain preventive medical care;

(c) The employee or the employee's family member has been the victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or harassment and the use of leave is to:

(I) seek medical attention for the employee or the employee's family member to recover from a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition caused by the domestic abuse, sexual assault, or harassment;

(2) An employer shall allow an employee to use paid sick leave upon the request of an employee. The request may be made orally, in writing, electronically, or by any other means acceptable to the employer. When possible, the employee shall include the expected duration of the absence. An employer may provide a written policy that contains reasonable procedures for the employee to provide notice when the use of paid sick leave taken under this section is foreseeable. An employer shall not deny paid sick leave to the employee based on noncompliance with such a policy.

(3) An employee must use paid sick leave in hourly increments unless the employee's employer allows paid sick leave to be taken in smaller increments of time.

(4) An employer shall not require, as a condition of providing paid sick leave under this part 4, an employee who uses paid sick leave to search for or find a replacement worker to cover the time during which the employee is absent from work.

(5) When the use of paid sick leave taken under this section is foreseeable, the employee shall make a good-faith effort to provide notice of the need for paid sick leave to the employee's employer in advance of the use of the paid sick leave and shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the use of paid sick leave in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the employer.

(6) Notwithstanding section 8-13.3-405(4)(b), for paid sick leave of four or more consecutive work days, an employer may require reasonable documentation that the paid sick leave is for a purpose authorized by this part 4.

8-13.3-405. Additional paid sick leave during a public health emergency.

(1) In addition to paid sick leave accrued under section 8-13.3-403, on the date a public health emergency is declared, each employer in the state shall supplement each employee's accrued paid sick leave as necessary to ensure that an employee may take the following amounts of paid sick leave for the purposes specified in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) for employees who normally work forty or more hours in a week, at least eighty hours;

(b) for employees who normally work fewer than forty hours in a week, at least the greater of either the amount of time the employee is scheduled to work in a fourteen-day period or the amount of time the employee actually works on average in a fourteen-day period.

(a) An employer may count an employee's unused accrued paid sick leave under section 8-13.3-403 toward the supplemental paid sick leave required in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) An employee may use paid sick leave under this section until four weeks after the official termination or suspension of the public health emergency.

(3) An employer shall provide its employees the paid sick leave required in subsection (1) of this section for the following absences related to a public health emergency:

(I) A local, state, or federal public official or health authority having jurisdiction over the location in which the employee's place of employment is located or the employee's employer determines that the employee's presence on the job or in the community would jeopardize the health of others because of the employee's exposure to the communicable illness or because the employee is exhibiting symptoms of the communicable illness, regardless of whether the employee has been diagnosed with the communicable illness; or

(II) care of a family member after a local, state, or federal public official or health authority having jurisdiction over the location in which the family member's place of employment is located or the family member's employer determines that the family member's presence on the job or in the community would jeopardize the health of others because of the family member's exposure to the

8-13.3-414. Other legal requirements applicable.

(1) This part 4 provides minimum requirements pertaining to paid sick leave and does not preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for a greater amount, accrual, or use by employees of paid sick leave or that extends other protections to employees.

(2) To the extent allowable and not in conflict with federal law, any paid sick leave provided to an employee of a federal contractor as required by federal executive order 13706, "Establishing Paid Sick Leave For Federal Contractors", as published in 81 fed. reg. 67598 (2016), is considered paid sick leave provided under this part 4.

8-13.3-415. Collective bargaining agreements.

(a) With agreement of the fund trustees, an employer signatory to a multiemployer collective bargaining agreement may fulfill its obligations under this part 4 by making contributions to a multiemployer paid sick leave fund, plan, or program based on the hours each of its employees accrues pursuant to this part 4 while working under the multiemployer collective bargaining agreement, if the fund, plan, or program enables employees to collect paid sick leave from the fund, plan, or program based on hours they have worked under the multiemployer collective bargaining agreement and for the purposes specified under this part 4.

(3) For employees covered by a bona fide collective bargaining agreement that is initially negotiated or negotiated for the next collective bargaining agreement after the effective date of this part 4, this part 4 does not apply to such employees if the requirements of this part 4 are expressly waived in the collective bargaining agreement and the collective bargaining agreement provides for equivalent or more generous paid sick leave for the employees covered by the collective bargaining agreement.

8-13.3-416. Employer policies. An employer policy adopted or retained must not diminish an employee's right to paid sick leave under this part 4. Any agreement by an employee to waive the employee's rights under this part 4 is void as against public policy.

8-13.3-417. Severability.
