

Labor Standards Complaint Form

This is the Colorado Division of Labor Standards and Statistics' complaint form. This form can be used for claims for unpaid wages; rest, meal, and sick leave not provided or not paid; agricultural labor rights violations; and certain types of retaliation. The Division's process is a free service available to employees, regardless of immigration status, who do not have an ongoing claim in court.

If you have documents to support your claim, please include them with this form when you submit it. Examples of helpful documents include pay statements, texts and emails to the employer, time cards, handbooks, agreements, etc.

Please be aware this process will take several months to complete, and it may be some time before the Division contacts you. The Division will contact you when we start our review of your complaint.

For more information about the laws enforced by the Division, the Division's complaint process, or for other questions, you can contact the Division by phone at 303-318-8441 or 1-888-390-7936 (toll free). Calculation Details

Explain what amount(s) you believe you are owed and why. Please provide dates, hours worked, amounts earned/paid, and the rate of pay (hourly, salary, bonus, commission, tips) to show your math. If you can't provide an exact amount, please provide an estimate and explain how you estimated that amount.

If you have multiple claims, provide separate amounts and explanations for each type and a single total amount. (e.g. $500.00 in final pay and $500.00 in unpaid overtime = $1,000.00 total amount claimed). Please include any records you have that support your claim or will help the Division understand your claim (e.g., time records, company policies, pay stubs, etc.) when you submit this form.

PLEASE NOTE: The Division cannot accept claims for more than $7,500.00 per employee. If you believe you are owed more than $7,500.00 and you want to move forward, you may only claim $7,500.00 in wages.

Total Amount Claimed*

Calculation details*

Calculation Examples

1. I was paid a salary of $1,800.00 twice a month, and I was not paid for my last week and 3 days of work. I am owed $1,329.22 in final wages.

$$\text{$1,800.00 bi-monthly salary} \times 2 = \text{$3,600.00 monthly salary}$$

$3,600.00 monthly salary x 12 = $43,200.00 annual salary
 $43,200.00 annual salary / 52 weeks = $830.77 weekly salary
 $830.77 weekly salary / 5 days worked per week = $166.15 daily salary

1 week = $830.77 weekly salary owed for week one
 3 days = $166.15 daily salary x 3 days = $498.45 owed for week two
 $830.77 + $498.45 = $1,329.22 owed

2. I was not paid properly for my overtime. I am not sure how many hours I worked each week, but my best guess is that I worked on average 45 hours per week and I was only ever paid $15.00 for all hours worked. My first day was July 6, 2020 and I quit on December 4, 2020. I am owed about $825.00 in unpaid overtime.

$15.00 hourly rate x 1.5 = $22.50 overtime rate.

40 hours x $15.00 regular rate = $600.00 regular earned per week
 5 hours x $22.50 overtime rate = $112.50 overtime earned per week.

$600.00 + $112.50 = $712.50 total earned per week
 $712.50 total earned per week x 22 weeks worked = $15,675.00 total earned

45 hours worked per week x $15.00 paid = $675.00 paid per week
 $675.00 paid per week x 22 weeks worked = $14,850.00 total paid

$15,675.00 earned - $14,850.00 paid = $825.00 owed

3. I was not paid my vacation pay when I was fired. My weekly salary was $875.00 and I had 56.2 hours of unused vacation. I am owed $1,229.66 in an unused vacation.

$875.00 weekly salary / 40 average hours worked per week = $21.88 pro-rated hourly rate
 $21.88 pro-rated hourly rate x 56.2 unpaid vacation hours = $1,229.66 owed.

Written Demand for Payment of Wages

You may send a written demand for payment of wages to the employer for owed wages after they are due. If full payment is not made within 14 calendar days after the written demand is sent, the employer may have to pay penalties in addition to owed wages. If you did not send a written demand, the first letter from the Division to the employer is the written demand.

The Division provides a Written Demand for Payment of Wages form on the Division's website that you can choose to use. This can be found at www.coloradolaborlaw.gov, then click on the "Demands, Complaints, Responses, & Settlements" button, and look for the Worker Forms / Formas de Trabajador (Complaints, Demands, Settlements) section. You do not need to use this form to send a demand - a demand can also be a text message, email, or letter to the employer asking for payment of wages, and can be sent on behalf of other employees along with you. Please keep proof of how and when your demand was sent (e.g., mail receipt, email, text message).

Are you filing this complaint to claim that wages are owed, and should be paid, not only to you, but also to others at the same employer? Before you consider checking “yes,” please note:

(1) Though all individual wage complaints are investigated, due to limited resources at this time: The Division generally will decline requests for group investigations; complaints will be investigated for only the person filing. You still may check “yes” to suggest one combined investigation if others file similar complaints against the same employer.

(2) Even if you check “no”: You can still report other violations -- by selecting the third option below, then (in the questions that come after this one) telling us about those other violations.

(3) If you check “yes”: The investigation will take longer, and you may need to answer more questions, or give the Division more information or documents.

(4) You can check “yes” for only monetary wage complaints (unpaid wages, paid breaks, paid sick leave, etc.), not other claim types (whistleblower, retaliation, non-monetary complaints about pay statements not provided, etc.).

- Yes: I am requesting investigation as to not only my own work, but also for a group of others
- No: I am requesting investigation as to my own work, and I don't have other violations to report
