

The Colorado Youth Employment Opportunity Act (“CYEOA”) C.R.S. § 8-12-101, et seq.

C.R.S. § 8-12-101. Short title.

This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Youth Employment Opportunity Act of 1971”.

C.R.S. § 8-12-102. Legislative declaration.

- (1) It is the policy of this state to foster the economic, social, and educational development of young people through employment. Work is an integral factor in providing a sense of purpose, direction, and self-esteem necessary to the overall physical and mental health of an individual. In the first part of this century, state and federal laws and regulations were needed to prevent the exploitation of child labor. Unfortunately, such legislation also has tended, on occasion, to limit and curtail opportunities for minors to participate in reasonable work experiences. Young people, especially those who have completed high school or occupational training and no longer are in school, should not be denied employment opportunities because of arbitrary minimum age limits. Work, however, should be coordinated with schooling wherever appropriate. Work and study combined must be developed in the interest of the youth to be trained.
- (2) Repealed.

C.R.S. § 8-12-103. Definitions.

As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) Repealed.
- (2) “Director” means the director of the division of labor standards and statistics.
- (3) “Division” means the division of labor standards and statistics in the department of labor and employment.
- (4) “Employment” means any occupation engaged in for compensation in money or other valuable consideration, whether paid to the minor or to some other person, including, but not limited to, occupation as a servant, agent, subagent, or independent contractor.
- (5) “Minor” means any person under the age of eighteen, except a person who has received a high school diploma or a passing score on the general educational development examination. The state board of education may administer the general educational development examination to any minor seventeen years of age or older who wishes to be considered an adult for the purpose of this article if such person is qualified to take the examination under the standards established by the state board of education.
- (6) “School day” means any day when normal classes are in session during the regular school year in the school district.
- (7) “School hours” means that period during which the student is expected to be in school in the school district.

C.R.S. § 8-12-104. Exemptions.

- (1) The provisions of this article, except section 8-12-110, shall not apply to the following:
 - (a) School work and supervised educational activities;
 - (b) Home chores;
 - (c) Work done for a parent or guardian, except where the parent or guardian receives any payment therefor;
 - (d) Newsboys and newspaper carriers.
- (2) Any minor employed as an actor, model, or performer shall be exempt from the provisions of subsection

(1) of section 8-12-105.

- (3) The director may grant exemptions from any provision of this article, except for sections 8-12-113 and 8-12-114, for an individual minor if he finds that such an exemption would be in the best interests of the minor involved. In granting exemptions, the director shall consider, among other things, the previous training which the minor has received in his proposed occupation and his knowledge of the proper safety measures to be taken in connection with such occupation. The director may require any applicant for an exemption from section 8-12-110 to submit to a test of his ability to perform the skills required for the proposed occupation. Such tests may be administered by a community and technical college, a private occupational school, or any other institution which offers courses in the skills required, which courses are approved by either the state board for community colleges and occupational education or the private occupational school division.
- (4) Any employer, minor, minor's parent or guardian, school official, or youth employment specialist may request an exemption, as provided in subsection (3) of this section, from a provision of this article.

(1) Any employer desiring proof of the age of any minor employee or prospective employee may require the minor to submit an age certificate. Upon request of a minor, an age certificate shall be issued by or under the authority of the school superintendent of the district or county in which the applicant resides. The superintendents, principals, or headmasters of independent or parochial schools shall issue age certificates to minors who attend such schools.

(2) The age certificate shall show the age of the minor, the date of his birth, the date of issuance of the certificate, the name and position of the issuing officer, the name, address, and description of the minor, and what evidence was accepted as proof of age. It shall be signed by the issuing officer and by the minor in his presence.

(3) An age certificate shall not be issued unless the minor's birth certificate or a photocopy or extract thereof is exhibited to the issuing officer, or unless such evidence was previously examined by the school authorities and the information is shown on the school records. - (4) If the issuing officer is in doubt about whether the proposed employment is in accordance with this article, he shall consult with the division before issuing the permit.
- (5) Upon termination for any reason of the employment authorized, the employer shall return the school release permit directly to the issuing officer with a notation showing the date of termination.
- (6) The issuing officer is authorized to cancel a school release permit if the issuing officer determines that the action would be in the best interest of the minor. If a school release permit is canceled, for reasons other than the termination of employment for which the permit was granted, the minor shall be entitled to a review of the cancellation by the court having jurisdiction of juvenile matters in the county in which the minor resides, in accordance with the procedures established by section 8-12-114.

- (2) The official who refused to issue or canceled the school release permit shall, upon demand made within five days after the refusal or cancellation, promptly furnish the minor and his parent or guardian with a written statement of the reasons for such refusal or cancellation.
- (3) Within five days after the receipt of such statement, the minor and his parent or guardian may petition the court for an order directing the issuance or reissuance of a school release permit. The petition shall state the reasons why the court should issue such an order, and the petitioner shall attach to such petition the statement of the issuing officer obtained as provided in subsection (2) of this section.
- (4) The court shall hold a hearing and receive such further testimony and evidence as it deems necessary. If the court finds that the issuance or reissuance of a permit is in the best interest of the minor, it shall grant the petition.

- (3)
 - (a) The director shall receive and investigate complaints and may from time to time visit employers at reasonable times and inspect pertinent records to determine compliance with this article 12.
 - (b) For the purpose of investigating a violation of this article 12, the director may apply the information-gathering authorizations described in article 1 of this title 8 to an employer, an employee, or other person.

- (a) If investigation of any place of employment or complaint discloses a violation of this article 12, the director shall give the employer a written notice of violation describing the violation, ordering monetary or other relief as appropriate, and specifying the provisions of this article 12 that the employer violated. Within thirty-five days after receipt of the notice of violation, the employer may file a written request for an appeal hearing, which shall be conducted in accordance with section 8-4-111.5.
- (b) At any time after the issuance of a final order, the director may order penalties pursuant to section 8-1-140(2) for each offense. Each day that the conduct constituting the violation is continued after the order is made final, and each minor employed in violation of this article 12, constitutes a separate offense. The order imposing the penalty is final upon issuance, and the penalty is due and payable thirty-five days after the order assessing the penalty is entered, unless prior to that time the order has been modified or a hearing on the penalty has been requested as provided by section 8-4-111.5.
- (c) The division shall collect all penalties imposed by this section as provided in section 8-1-142 and transmit the collected penalties to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall deposit the money into the wage theft enforcement fund created in section 8-4-113(3).

- (a) After twenty days elapse to allow an employer to notify the director of a potential trade secret pursuant to subsection (4.5)(a)(II) of this section, the division shall treat any final order issued for a violation of this article 12 as a public record and shall release the information related to the violation to the public upon request pursuant to the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of title 24; except that:
 - (I) The division shall redact any identifying information pertaining to a minor worker; and
 - (II) The division shall not release information related to a violation of this article 12 if the director makes a determination that the information is a trade secret. Upon issuing a final order, the director shall notify the employer of the potential release of the information. The employer may, within twenty days after the notification, provide the director with any documentation demonstrating that the information, of specific matters included in the information, is a trade secret. If the director, in the director's discretion, determines that the information, or any portion of the information, is a trade secret, the director shall treat the information as confidential.

- (b) As used in this subsection (4.5), "trade secret" has the meaning set forth in section 7-74-102 (4).

- (5) The findings, orders, and penalties made by the director shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

- (a) The director may, or, at the request of any individual aggrieved by a violation of this article 12, shall, file a certified copy of a final order issued pursuant to this article 12 with the clerk of any court having jurisdiction over the parties at any time after the entry of the order. The director may file one certified copy of the final order for all amounts owed to, or for other relief for, all individuals aggrieved.
- (b) The clerk of the court shall record the final order in the judgement book of the court and make an entry in the judgement docket. Upon recording, the final order has the effect of and may be executed as a judgment of the court.
- (c)
 - (I) Upon recording pursuant to subsection (5.5)(b) of this section, the judgement is sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in the manner provided by law in the case of a judgement that is wholly or partially unsatisfied.

- (II) The court shall mail a copy of the judgement to all parties to the matter within three days after the director has filed the order with the clerk of the court.
- (6) The director may apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from committing any act prohibited by this article.
- (7) The director, in accordance with section 24-4-103, C.R.S., shall promulgate rules and regulations more specifically defining the occupations and types of equipment permitted or prohibited by this article.
- (8) The director may adopt rules as necessary to implement and administer this article 12.

C.R.S. § 8-12-116. Penalty for violations.

- (1) Any person, including any firm or corporation, or any agent, manager, superintendent, or foreperson of any firm or corporation, that, individually or through an agent, subagent, manager, superintendent, or foreperson, violates or fails to comply with this article 12 is subject to the following penalties:
 - (a) Except as described in subsections (1)(c) and (5) of this section, a person who commits a violation of section 8-12-110 or rules promulgated under that section shall be required to pay a fine of not less than two thousand dollars but not more than four thousand dollars;
 - (b) Except as described in subsections (1)(d) and (5) of this section, a person who commits a violation of any provision of this article 12 other than section 8-12-110 shall be required to pay a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars but not more than one thousand dollars;
 - (c) A person who commits a willful violation of section 8-12-110 or rules promulgated under that section or a second or subsequent violation of section 8-12-110 or rules promulgated under that section within five years after the person's most recent violation of this article 12 shall be required to pay a fine of not less than five thousand dollars but not more than ten thousand dollars; and
 - (d) A person who commits a willful violation of any provision of this article 12 other than section 8-12-110 or a second or subsequent violation of any provision of this article 12 other than section 8-12-110 within five years after the person's most recent violation of this article 12 shall be required to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars but not more than four thousand dollars.
- (2) The division shall collect all penalties imposed by subsection (1) of this section as provided in section 8-1-142 and transmit the collected penalties to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall deposit the money into the wage theft enforcement fund created in section 8-4-113 (3).
- (3) In addition to any penalties to which a person may be subject pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, any person, including any firm or corporation, or any agent, manager, superintendent, or foreperson of any firm or corporation, that, individually or through an agent, subagent, foreperson, superintendent, or manager, violates or fails to comply with this article 12 is liable for damages in the following amounts payable to any individual aggrieved:

any provision of this article 12 other than section 8-12-110 within five years after the person's most recent violation of this article 12.

(4) All damages that a person is ordered to pay pursuant to subsection (3) or this section must be paid to the person aggrieved unless that person, after reasonable and diligent effort by the director, cannot be found, in which case the damages must be paid to the state treasurer, who shall deposit the money into the wage theft enforcement fund created in section 8-4-113 (3).

(5)

(a) The division may reduce or decline to impose penalties or damages pursuant to subsection (1) or (3) of this section if:

- (I) The minor worker intentionally misled the employer with regard to the minor's age; and
- (II) The employer engaged in outreach to a reliable third party to verify the minor worker's age if any reasonable employer could have believed that the minor worker might be under eighteen years of age at the time of hiring. The receipt of an age certificate, as described in section 8-12-111, constitutes outreach to a reliable third party.

(b) In determining whether to reduce or decline to impose damages as described in subsection (5)(a) of this section, the division shall consider the following factors:

- (I) The reasonableness of efforts taken by the employer to verify the age of the minor worker;

Upon conviction of a second or subsequent offense, such person shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars.

(7) On January 1, 2026, and on January 1 of each year thereafter, the division shall increase the penalty and damage amounts described in this section for inflation, if any. The division may round the adjusted amount upward to the nearest dollar. Inflation is measured by the annual percentage change in the United States department of labor's bureau of labor statistics consumer price index, or a successor index, for Denver-Aurora-Lakewood for all items paid by urban consumers. The director shall publish updated penalty and damage amounts annually.

C.R.S. § 8-12-117. Minors covered by workers' compensation.

(1) All minors, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, are subject to the rights and remedies of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of this title 8, if the employer is included within the meaning of section 8-40-203.

(2) Persons aggrieved by violations of this article 12 may pursue remedies at law and in equity, including remedies in tort, and remedies under the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of this title 8, if:

(a) An injury occurs to a minor during a week when the employer intentionally required the minor to work hours in violation of those allowed by this article 12; or

- (b) An injury occurs to a minor while the minor was engaging in work prohibited by this article 12.
- (3) Economic damages for claims in tort recovered by a party aggrieved by a violation of this article 12 against the employer of a minor pursuant to subsection (2) of this section must be reduced by the amount of compensation and benefits that the minor or the minor's dependents received for the same harm through the employer's workers' compensation insurance policy pursuant to articles 40 to 47 of this title 8.

C.R.S § 8-12-118. Protection from retaliation-rebuttable presumption of retaliation.

- (1) The retaliation protections described in section 8-4-120 protect an individual attempting to exercise any right protected under this article 12.
- (2) If a person, including any firm or corporation, or any agent, manager, superintendent, or foreperson of any firm or corporation, individually or through an agent, subagent, manager, superintendent, or foreperson, takes a disciplinary or adverse action against an individual aggrieved by a violation of this article 12 within ninety calendar days after the individual aggrieved exercises a right protected under this article 12, there is a rebuttable presumption that the action was retaliatory.
